Presbytery of Annandale and Eskdale

Prayer Diary

A Prayer

A Prayer for all our generations...

*In the forgotten corner of the cupboard of our prayers
We come across photographs of every generation
From sepia to technicolour to multi-million mega pixels
We hold in our hearts the memories we have of the generations that have gone before us* and so we pray for our world in all its generations.

For the Silent Generation, we remember the indelible impact of war we pray for children who endure today the pain of warfare and we pause to remember those who still fight for civil rights.

*With the baby boomers, we celebrate the developments of technology
We pray for the adventure of new discoveries on earth and in space
And we hold the struggle of counterculture, its lures and trappings.*

Generation X calls us to pray for the pain of places like Vietnam, both past and present

*That nations will learn to live with one another in peace
And the warheads of suspicion are made redundant.*

Generation Y teaches us to pray for a fast paced world where information is everywhere.

*May we see the clarity of God amidst the clamour of media, of fear and distrust
May terror cease in your transforming kingdom love
And may we know that you still call us to be yours.*

And we pray for today's generation, the New Silent Generation Z.

Global digitalisation leaves no stone unturned.

Teach us in this frenetic pace of today, to listen for your still small voice of calm.

Lord God, these are our generations.

Teach us to find your prophetic word and to hear your truth, and speak of your love, yesterday, today and tomorrow.

Amen
